Minors under age 14

Usually not authorized however, exemptions from this restriction apply under the following specific circumstances:

Minors under age 14 may work in any aspect of show business, such as acting or performing in a theatrical, television, radio, or film production.

Minors age 12 and 13 may work during non school sessions in nonhazardous farm jobs with written parental consent. Minors age 12 and 13 may engage in farm labor at any agricultural establishment at which the minor's parents are employed.

At any age, minors may work in any business or establishment which is owned and operated by the parent of the minor.

At any age, minors may deliver newspapers to consumers.

Minors age 14 and 15

Work with prescribed scheduling restrictions. (Non school sessions are defined as summer vacation, Christmas vacation, spring break, and weekends.) Normal school sessions include all days in which the school observes a standard academic calendar.

During normal school sessions, minors may work a maximum of three hours per day, up to eighteen hours per week. Work hours must fall between the hours of 7:00 a.m. - 7:00 p.m. So, the work schedule will be between 3:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. since that time falls after school.

During non school sessions, minors may work up to eight hours per day, 40 hours per week. Work hours must fall between 7:00 a.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Appropriate employment may include, but is not limited to: cashiering, serving food, custodial duties, bussing tables, car washing, and delivery work not involving the operation of a motor vehicle.

Minors may not engage in the following work activities: warehousing and storage, car repair, public utility duties, work involving the use of ladders or scaffolding, work involving food preparation, the use of grinders, the operation of lawnmower and golf carts, or anything deemed hazardous.

Minors age 16 to 18

Minors age 16 and older are exempt from the hour and scheduling restrictions.

These minors may work as many daily and weekly hours as the job responsibilities require or the employer requests.

Minors age 16 to 18 may not engage in any occupation deemed hazardous.

Over 18

No jurisdiction is established in the enforcement of child labor laws for employees who are age 18 or older.

Hidden Treasure helps children and young people with mental, physical, emotional, and learning disabilities to understand and reach their full potential. At the heart of the Hidden Treasure program are two unique elements: a low student-teacher ratio and the Individual Educational Plan. For every 8 students, there is one teacher and, many times, key to such a specialized training program is the Individual Educational Plan (IEP). It is developed specifically for each student after a careful evaluation of the mental, physical, social, and spiritual needs of the student and his or her family. Tuition assistance is available.
